

Job Title:	Graphic Designer (Full time)
Reports to:	Marketing and Events Manager
Job Purpose:	Production of visual assets across the business for both internal and external communications. Custodian of the Eckersley O'Callaghan graphic identity. This remit spans marketing, communications, bid management and internal resources.
Relationships:	Build and maintain close working relationships with clients, staff, and directors in the UK and globally

Eckersley O'Callaghan is one of the most innovative engineering design firms in the world, with a global reputation cultivated through a commitment to research and creative thinking. We enjoy working with a range of materials, forms and building types across diverse sectors and project scales to deliver imaginative solutions. Our multiple award-winning collaborations with forward-thinking architects such as Foster + Partners, Zaha Hadid Architects and Heatherwick Studio, for clients that include Apple, Google, Vitsoe and Bulgari, have placed us at the forefront of design in structures and facades. Our commitment to sustainability, digital design, and continuous research and development remains at the core of our approach.

We offer a stimulating work environment with enthusiastic, intelligent, hard-working colleagues, and support personal development through training and project opportunities. Our principal office is in London, with other offices in Manchester, Paris, Milan, New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Delhi, Hong Kong, Shanghai and Sydney.

We aim to always produce the very highest standard of visual communication. Our graphic identity is strong and our brand is well respected throughout our industry. We are looking for a talented Graphic Designer to join our London office to help manage and develop Eckersley O'Callaghan as a global brand. This is an opportunity for a creative and passionate graphics professional to join a small and friendly marketing team and play an integral role in the management and development of our brand as we continue to grow as a global business.
